You are requesting----To be Married in a Roman Catholic Church----

This Means-----Your Wedding will be Sacramental-----

Within the Catholic Church, one of the keys to the reception of any of the Sacraments is a period of preparation. This enables you, the recipients of this Sacrament, to fully understand and appreciate the Sacrament that is being given to you by God, through the Ministry of the Church.

During the Sacrament of Matrimony there will be vows and commitments that you will be making to each other. They will be witnessed by God, and by the congregation.

The Catholic Church wishes to partner with you, to help you understand what it is that you are about to do from a Catholic Theological point of view. Also to help you, put the Graces you receive in this Sacrament to the best possible use, in order that you will live up to your vows and commitments. Thank you for putting the trust in your future, in the Hands of God.

“Picture of Love” is our Wedding Gift to You
